

DELANEY'S FOUR RBIS LEAD UNIVERSITY TEAM AT NEIBA ALL-STAR GAME, 8-2

BOSTON – Boston College senior LF Jason Delaney (Hanson, MA) had a two-run triple and a two-run double to pace the University Division All-Stars to an 8-2 victory against the College Division All-Stars in the 2005 New England Intercollegiate Baseball Association (NEIBA) All-Star Game at Fenway Park on Sunday night.

College Division MVP Mike Chambers (Londonderry, NH) of Franklin Pierce College put his team out front, 2-1, with a two-run bomb over the Monster seats in left in the fourth.

The University team took the lead for good with two runs in the sixth to lead 3-2. UConn senior OF Russ D'Argento (Marlborough, MA) singled home a run and Northeastern senior 3B Tim Bush (Duxbury, MA) added a run-scoring double. Delaney's two-run triple in the seventh pushed the lead to 5-2, and he brought home two more with the two-run double in the ninth.

Northeastern's Adam Ottavino (Brooklyn, NH) earned the victory with two innings worked allowing no hits or runs and striking out three. With two hits, Delaney was the only player in the game to record a multiple-hit night.

With the victory, the University team stopped a two-game losing streak in the All-Star Game. They are now 20-9-1 overall against the College Division.
